LEAPED FROM A TRAIN

Mrs. Ruth Andrews, Bride of a Month, Found by Side of Track Dies in Hospital

Mrs. Ruth Andrews, 30 years old, the one-month bride of W. C. Andrews, an employee of the steel works, at Sparrow Point, Md., was fatally injured at midnight last night when she jumped from the Chesapeake and Ohio pasenger train which left Washington at 11:10 o'clock last night. She was taken to the Alexandria Hospital with a fractured skull, broken arm and leg and internal injuries, where she remained unconscious until 1:30 o'clock this afternoon when her death occurred.

Mrs. Andrews, accompanied by her husband and her sister, Miss Lula Myrtle, was enroute to her home in Staunton, Virginia, She was married a month ago in Washington and went to Baltimore to live. Recently she was taken ill and has been suffering from melancholy. Her relatives were taking her back to her home in Staunton in the hope that her condition would improve. The three were occupying seats in the chair car when they left Washington, and at Alexandria Mr. Andrews went into the smoker leaving his wife apparently asleep in the same seat with her sister. He returned a half hour later and found that she was gone. A search of the train was made and the right hand door of the vestibule was found open. Mr. Andrews and Miss Myrtle left the train at Manassas and returned to Alexandria.

The mangled form of Mrs. Andrews was picked up by a crew of a south-bound freight train one mile south of Burke station, 13 miles from Alexandria. She was carried into Manassas where Dr. Merchant attended her and accompanied her to Alexandria, reaching here at 5 o'clock this morning. At the Alexandria Hospital Dr. M. D. Delaney was called into consultation, but it was seen that her condition was hopeless.

FRENCH HOLD GERMAN DRIVE

Teutons, in Terrific Attack Before Verdun, Gain Little

HAND TO HAND FIGHTS

Region of Haudramont-Douaumont Theatre of Most Murderous Struggle in All History

Paris, May 24. —Ten thousand men have gone down to slaughter in what is rapidly becoming the blodiest engagement of the three month's battle of Verdun.

From Dead Man's Hill eastward to ruins of Fort Douaumont the most savage struggle in any theater of war in the past two months is being waged.

The Germans last night rolled 80,000 men up against the French works on Dead Man's Hill, while two German brigades time and again rushed the French defenders of Douaumont.

The fighting in the ruins of the fort attained the greatest violence at noon yesterday. The Germans bathed French positions from Thiaumont to Douaumont in a steady drum-fire.

From behind great clouds of dust thrown up by the shells the gray columns of Germans emerged on a mad run for the French works.

While French machine guns sprayed the advancing lines, the charging Germans reached the western and northwestern edges of Douaumont fort and came to grips with the French defenders.

Groups of men struggled at such close quarters that bayonets and grenades became useless and resort was had to knives.

The opposing artillery, meanwhile sent shells shrieking over the fort, searching out enemy reserves.

Throughout yesterday afternoon Germans columns attacked repeatedly on both sides of the fort, from the northern fringe of Caillette wood and from the ravine north of Thiaumont farm.

At sundown last night the situation was virtually unchanged, the French maintaining themselves in those portions of the positions taken on Monday.

Paris, May 24—Terrific attacks are being made by the Germans against the French positions before Verdun, according to announcements issued by the French War Office.

Following violent assaults Monday night upon Hill 304, reported in an official communication, the War Office announced last night attacks of "extreme violence" upon the whole French front. The War Office states that these attacks have been repulsed and that the French have retained possession of the positions in Fort Douaumont which they gained Monday.

The French official report says:

"The first attack, mowed down by our artillery and machine gun fire, was repulsed with sanguinary losses, without the enemy having been able to reach our lines.

"A second attack, likewise desperate, about 7 o'clock in the evening succeeded in gaining a footing in one of our trenches to the west. An immediate counter-attack completely drove out the enemy.

"On the right bank, the region of Haudromont-Douaumont, was all day the theatre of a murderous struggle. The Germans multiplied their assault which were preceded each time by very powerful artillery preparations.

"Despite all these efforts, the positions conquered by us were maintained in their entirely, notably in Fort Douaumont. In this region more than three hundred prisoners remained in our hands."

Paris, May 24—Recapture by the French after three months of the greater part of Fort Douaumont, which was taken by the Germans at the outset of their Verdun drive, is received with great elation by the press and the public, the more so on account of the effect it is expected to have on neutral opinion.

The French success is considered by military critics here to have shaken the whole German line at Verdun. Douaumont fort was the most important point captured by the Germans, and the French gain there is regarded as having nullified the most significant achievement of the Germans in the great battle of three months.

Berlin, May 24—Announcement was made by the War Office yesterday that in the fighting north of Verdun the French have taken some first-line trenches of the Germans, hut that Fort Douaumont remains firmly in German hands.

BATTLE ON TYROL FRONT.

Great Shells Now Screaming Across Gorges in Mountains.

Geneva, May 24. — The deep-throated roar of hundreds of big guns on the Tyrol front, sending death and destruction crashing into the Italian lines, yesterday marked in red the first anniversary of Italy's entrance into the war.

Opposed at every step by the valiant Alpine corps of the Italian army, backed up by their mountain artillery and reserve forces, the Austrians continue to press their advance against Vicenza, Italy's "Verdun."

While the invaders have gained at widely separated points at no place can the Italian line be said to be giving away—except for strategical reasons.

Between Lake Garda and the Adige the Austrians are massing great forces for a new advance. Scores of armored aircraft are adding to the holocaust of death with their death-dealing bombs and swivel machine guns.

Austrian artillery has begun a bombardment of the snow-capped peak of Monte Pasubio, 21 miles northwest of Vicenza. The position has been strongly fortified by the Italians. It bars the northern entrance into the northern Italian plain less than ten miles distant.

The whole Tyrol front is now the scene of most desperate fighting. South of Rovereto the Italians are making a stand near Surravalle, captured in their advance up the Adige Valley last summer. Italian guns on the ridge of Monte Baldo are sending great shells screaming across the intervening gorges against the attacking enemy forces.

East and southeast of Rovereto the Austrians have crossed onto Italian soil at three different places. Rome reports furious fighting in this region with hand-to-hand struggles, first on the Italian and then on the Austrian side of the border.

The latest Rome dispatches reterate the expressions of confidence in the outcome of the battle in southern Italian military critics believe the Austrians drove southward solely to divert the Italians from a great offensive on the Isonzo line, and that the attacking forces must soon abandon the offensive because of heavy losses.

WHERE IS THE BRITISH ARMY?

Quarter of Million of Men Being Used as Servants, Grooms, Etc

London, May 24—"Where is the British army of 5,00,000 men that the government claims to have under arms?" demanded Winston Churchill in the house of commons yesterday afternoon.

The former first lord of the admiralty who returned from the trenches to attend the present session of parliament declared that it was evident that a big margin of the army is not being applied usefully in the war. He suggested that the establishment of field battalions be raised to 1,200.

"Two hundred thousand officers now with the army are employing 200,000 servants and 50,00 grooms, which is an army in itself, and also great masses of cavalry are not being used" said Mr. Churchill. "New formations could be built with these men, creating a force of the highest military quality."

Columbus, N. M., May 24.— Villa bandits are recruiting in the wake of the withdrawing American forces, according to information received here today from Pershing's front.

The remnant of the bands dispersed by the United States troops are conscripting peons at gun points, telling them that Villa is coming back to lead them and promising them rich loot, which they say will be left by the Americans on their flight north.

Washington, May 24..—Carranza's note to the United States reported to be a flat demand for the withdrawal of American troops from Mexico is coming forward by messenger, not by cable, Consul Rodgers informed the State Department today.

As a result it probably will not reach Washington until the first of next week.

While without any official advance knowledge of its contents, some officials here profess to believe the note will not be a ultimatum, but an urgent request, as in the past.

Vera Cruz, Mexico, May 24—Zapata adherents attacked the first passenger train to leave Mexico City for Cuernavaca, killing every person upon it except the express messenger, who managed to escape.

After killing the passengers and train crew, they looted the express and baggage cars and robbed the bodies of the passengers. Reports received here said that they got 3,000,000 pesos worth of Carranza currency and 2,000,000 rounds of ammunition from the express car.

The train was derailed before they opened fire on it. Subsequently the cars were destroyed by fire.

SENSATIONAL CHARGES

Two New York Officials Indicted for Wire Tapping

New York, May. 24—Sensational charges by Mayor John Purroy Mitchel against some of his "coreligionists" in attempting justification of telephone wiretapping during the investigation conducted by a committee appointed by Gov. Whitman into the affairs of Roman Catholic charitable institutions in this city were made late yesterday before the legislative committee, headed by State Senator George F. Thompson.

The mayor's allegations prompted by the indictment in Kings County earlier in the day of John A. Kingsbury, city commissioner of charities, and William H. Hotchkiss, special counsel for the charities department, for their part in the "tapping" of telephone wires. The chief witness against them before the grand jury were Catholic clergymen.

They were indicted for tapping the telephone wires of the Rev. William B. Farrell, Dr. Daniel C. Potter and Dean Potter. They pleaded not guilty before county Judge May, and were held in $1,000 bail each for trial.

The maximum punishment imposed by law for tapping telephone wires is two years' imprisonment.

GREAT WAR COUNCIL

Results of Failure of Germans to Capture Verdun

Amsterdam, May 24—A great war council, attended by all the field marshals commanding German armies in the various theaters of war, is being held at Berlin, according to advices received here.

The meeting is said to have been called by Emperor William as a result of the failure to capture Verdun and the dissatisfaction that developed among the leading commanders because of the fact that their forces had been weakened to help Crown Prince Frederick William in his futile drive on the Meuse River.

Dutch military leaders claim to have received information that the Verdun campaign was opposed by Field Marshal von Hindenburg and Field Marshal von Mackensen on the ground that the troops which would be necessarily sacrifice could better be used in the eastern theater and in helping the Turks in Mesopotamia but that they were overruled.

The Rev. Edward T. Kirkley, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church left last night for Staunton to attend the Virginia Christian Endeavor meeting.

PROHIBITIONISTS IN CONVENTION

State Body in Session in St. Paul's Church Richmond

McINTYRE CHAIRMAN

Declares Prospects Are Bright in Virginia for More Votes For Abolition of Liquor

Richmond, May 24—The State convention of the Prohibition party convened yesterday morning in Smithdeal Hall and held three sessions. Delegates to the national convention of the party will be chosen today and a complete electoral ticket for Virginia will be nominated. There will be eight delegates chosen to the national convention, which will be held in St. Paul, Minn, on May 19-21.

Dr. E. R. McIntyre, of Drewery's Bluff, was chosen permanent chairman, and W. A. Rife, of Waynesboro, vice chairman. Dr. R. S. Griffith, of Basic City, was elected secretary, and A. Lee Knowles, assistant secretary. Dr. McIntyre, Mrs. Georgia May Jobson and Mrs. W. M. Bickers were appointed the committee on resolutions and platform.

In his opening remarks Dr. McIntyre declared that the outlook in Virginia for a national prohibition movement was brighter than any previous year, and stated that there are already recorded at the State headquarters more voters pledged to support national prohibition candidates than there were credited for Eugene Chafin, Prohibition candidate for President in 1912, by the official returns.

Dr. McIntyre also stated that the most pressing need was for volunteer workers to cover the State in a personal canvass, especially for what is known as the "5,000,000 movement", the purpose of which is to secure the signatues of that many voters to an agreement pledging support only to such candidates and parties as stand by the State and national platform for the prohibition of the liquor traffic.

The afternoon session was taken in charge by the local chapter of the National Women's Prohibition Federation. Mrs. Jobson presided. Speeches were made by Mrs. Bickers and Mrs. S. Hortense Ropp.

Finley C. Hendrickson, of Cumberland, Md., a member of the Prohibitional national executive committee who is suggested as a candidate for the nomination of Vice-president of the party, spoke also.

Fred D. L. Squires, of Chicago, formerly editor of the American Advance, is attending the convention as a representative of the national headquarters. Mr. Squires spoke at the afternoon session, outlining plans for the convention in St. Paul, and telling of the success of the party in enlisting prominent men to its support.

DIED AS A FIERY SACRIFICE,

Ranchman Offers Himself Up on Self-Built Funeral Pyre.

Denver, May 24. — Opening the family Bible that lay beside her husband's charred body when it was discovered on a ranch near Castle Rock, a few days ago, after a search that had lasted since his disappearance, April 30, Mrs. Thomas Sawyer, a few minutes before starting for church Sunday, solved the mystery of her husband's stronge death.

Verses 6, 7, 8 and 9, Chapter, xxii, of Genesis, were interlined with pencil. Descriptive of Abraham's attempted sacrifice of his son Isaac, the marked verses disclosed to Mrs. Sawyer the manner of her husband's death.

Sawyer had built a pyre of wood and stones and then offered himself as a sacrifice to the Lord. The body was resting upon a pile of stones and charred wood, all of which was surrounded by the ashes of burned tree limbs. The body was so badly burned that it was not recognizable.

PROSPECTS FOR PEACE

Matter Discussed at Meeting of Cabinet Yesterday

Washington, May 24—Prospects of early place were discussed at the cabinet meeting yesterday. Consideration also as given to the address the President will deliver on Saturday before the League to Enforce Peace. The President's views, as he will outline them Saturday, are expected to be:

It is not too early to consider the part that the United States will take in ending the war.

The attitude of the belligerents now indicates that the initiative toward definite peace negotiations must be taken by a neutral nation or nations.

Preparations for peace negotiations may well be undertaken a year before any armistice, so there shall be no delay.

Neutral nations should be prompt to seize any opportunity that may pave the way to peace.

UPHOLDS THE TEACHER

Justice Caton Rules That Defendant Was Justified in Punishing Boy

C. B. Burroughs, principal of the Washington Street School for boys, was summonded to court this morning on the charge of assaulting Marion Cornell, a boy in Miss Beattie's class. The assault is said to have occurred yesterday. The boy stated that the teacher had slapped him and that he had resisted and that in the scuffle his eye had been blackened, his lip cut and some of his hair pulled out. Several boys testified to the same effect.

Mr. Burroughs declared that the boy had been suspended from school last November, but that he had given but little trouble recently. Yesterday the boys gave him a great deal of trouble and he remonstrated with them several times. Finally the Cornell boy was impudent and he slapped him with the result that the boy started to fight and was finally overcome.

Justice Caton held that the teacher had not committed an assault and dismissed the case. He declared that in sending children to school they were placed under the authority of the teachers and that the teachers were charged with maintaining dicipline under the rules of the school board. They were justified in using force when it was necessary and from the Cornell's boy statement he tried to resist the teacher when he was first corrected and his injuries had followed.

Matthew Oglin, driver of the car is locked up in police station on the charge of "joy-riding." According to the police, the negro, who is Mr. Harding's chauffer, took the car from the garage at midnight last night and came to Alexandria accompanied by several men and women. He was running 75 miles an hour when he failed to make the right turn up Shooter's Hill and the car jumped a five foot ditch.

Oglin tried to escape, and Officer Snellings fired two shots at him. The car was insured, and was taken charge of by the Fletcher, Demaine Co.

SETTLEMENT IS DENIED

President Rosenbaum of Carmen's Union Declares Men Will Stick to the Finish

Rumors that the men of the Washington and Old Dominion Line had declared their strike off and would return to work today were denied yesterday afternoon by A. D. Rosenbaum, president of the union, who, said: "The men are going to stick to the finish."

Chief Clerk Bohman, of the company, said that while a number of the men who went on strike have returned to work in the various departments of the service, he had heard nothing of the intention of the full body of strikers to ask for their former positions.

A thirty-minute schedule to Great Falls and the regular schedule to Bluemont are being maintained during the day. Officials of the line say night service would not be resumed for a time.

THE POLITICAL HORIZON.

The presidential campaign of 1916 may be memorable. Theodore Roosevelt is anxious to get back into the White House, and the Hughes boom is causing him and his followers no little anxiety. It has been whispered that should the former President fail to get the nomination at the republican convention in Chicago, he might play the part he did in 1912, and "go it alone", thus splitting the party as resulted on that occasion. It is suggested that this is flaunted as a threat to his former political supporters.

William Jennings Bryan is causing equal uneasiness to democratic leaders. Repudiated in Nebraska which state he desired to represent in the democratic convention in St. Louis, he will take no part in the preparation of the platform which he will be sure to attack if it fails to fit his moulds. No one can say with certainty what course he will follow:

It is said in Chicago that if he will consent to make the race, Mr. Bryan may be selected as the candidate of the Prohibition party.

Recent statements of Mr. Bryan before the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Saratoga Springs, in which he was quoted as declaring that he had about reached the point where he could not longer follow a political party which refused to indorse national prohibition is being discussed by Prohibition party leaders. They express the belief that if the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis declines to adopt a national prohibition plank in its platform. Mr. Bryan might consent to become the candidate of the Prohibition party for President.

The Prohibition National Convention will be held at St. Paul July 19 to 22 and will be preceded by a rally in the interest of the movement to obtain pledges from 5,000,000 people to vote only for candidates for public office who favor national prohibition.

Among the other candidates for President on the Prohibition ticket is Richmond P. Hobson, of Albama.

GERMANY AS A FUTURE ENEMY.

The common asumption that the United States has made an everlasting enemy of Germany is not well sustained by history. The people in Germany have always been trained to take their foreign policies from the experts in such things—from the kaiser, the chancellor, the foreign minister, the minister of commerce, the chief of the general staff of the army and a number of university professors. And Germany's foreign policies are based on the gospel of the main chance..

An exchange suggests that the Prussians fought the Austrians in 1866, and they became allies only a few years later. The Japanese and Russians were at war with each other ten years ago, and now they fight on the same side. Great Britain fought with Turkey against Russia in 1855, and saved Constantinople for the Turks in 1878 by threatening the Czar with war. Ten years since, Great Britain backed Japan against Russia.. Today, the British and Russians are allies,. So, too, the French and British are supporting each other in a desperate war with immense fidelity and devotion, yet during the Boer war France was wholly out of sympathy with the British cause, and in the earlier Fashoda crisis the two nations nearly came to blows. Ten years from now, in case circumstances should favor new alignments, the Germans and the Russians may be in a hard. and-fast alliance and neither people would have much trouble in following their leaders.

Germany will likewise be guided in her relations with the United States by her government, and the government policy toward America will, as always, be shaped by national self-interest and not by national grudges born in the present war.

ANOTHER WARNING

The words of the hymn, "Where is my wandering boy tonight?" are often hummed in pleasantry by thoughtless parents, until some serious occurrences call them to their senses. As was stated in yesterday's Gazette a boy now lies at his home in Richmond with a bullet in his head which may cause his death. He was shot during a nocturnal fight.

Marcus C. Kaufman, sixteen years old is the victim. He was shot during a clash between gangs of boys known as the Oregon Hill gang and the Fourth Street gang.

Clyde Underwood, seventeen years old is being held without bail at the Juvenile Detention Home. Underwood confesses to shooting at the Fourth Street gang, of which Kaufman was a member. He threw away the pistol after the shooting.

Other shots were fired during the melee. The trouble is said to have been the outgrowth of a scrap between the two gangs recently when the Oregon Hill gang was worsted.

Underwood has been in trouble before and, according to the present state laws regarding juvenile offenders, was under surveilance.

Many boys roam the streets at bed time and the sad case recorded above should be a reminder of dangers which lurk in the path of the young and thoughtless when allowed to roam at large at night.

During the summer of 1866 a number of boys of this city every Sunday afternoon proceeded up the Washington turnpike as far as Four-Mile-Run, where a party of Washington youths would meet them and stone battles followed. The youngsters of both cities gathered cobble-stones while on their way to the battle ground, and during the "engagements" attempts were made by both parties to seriously injure each other. The authorities of Alexandria were finally compelled to make their appearance in force, when the Washingtonians scampered to their homes and the Alexandrians, or most of them, were caught, brought to this city and turned over to their parents.

MEXICO IS DEFIANT.

History tells us that the war between the United States and Mexico 1846-1847 was plainly one of unjust aggression on a minor power, with the object of winning more territory for new slave states.

The United States may not have been justifiable in its action on that occasion, but that the big stick will have to be used eventually on Mexico if this country is to maintain its self-respect among the nations of the earth should be apparent to all. Our country is invaded ad libitum by bandits, who shoot and rob Americans and make their escape across the border. The de facto government of Mexico has failed to put a stop to these procedures, and many are inclined to believe it is totally unconcerned whether or not the miscreants are caught or punished.

A dispatch from Mexico City, says a note from the de facto government of Mexico to the government of the United States demanding the immediate withdrawal of the American troops from Mexico has been dispatched to Washington. The note states that the Mexican people do not want war with the United States, but they are ready for war rather than to have their national honor and sovereignty trampled upon.

Two thousand students met yesterday and appointed a committee to wait on Gen. Carranza and assure him of their support in case of foreign invasion, and to ascertain from him the present international situation.

It remains to be seen how long this government is to suffer wrong from the acts of brigands and the insolence of transient administrations in Mexico.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Eight thousand persons have died of starvation in Lebanon, according to a cable message received by the Daily Mirror, a Syrian newspaper of New York.

Former President Theodore Roosevelt received an ovation yesterday when he went to Washington to appear as a character witness in the Riggs bank trial. Mr. Roosevelt refused absolutely to talk politics.

George White, 23, a bridegroom of less than a year, was struck below the heart by a pitched ball in an amateur baseball game yesterday at Detroit, Mich., and died in ten minutes.

Administration efforts to have the Senate reconsider its refusal to confirm the nomination of George Rublee, of New Hampshire, as a member of the Federal Trade Commission failed yesterday by a tie vote, 33 to 38.

Ten persons were seriously injured and others suffered battered heads and faces in a riot yesterday at Old Forge, near Scranton, Pa., where several hundred I. W. W. mine workers are on strike. The strikers attacked men who refused to join their ranks and clubed them unmercifully.

Gen. Murray Vandiver, chairman of the Democratic State Committee and Treasurer of Maryland during eight terms, died yesterday afternoon at the cottage at Blue Ridge Summit. Gen. Vandiver was 71 years old, He was born at Havre de Grace in 1845.

The torpedo-boat destroyer Sampson exceeded contract requirements by attaining a speed of 31,2 knots an hour during her acceptance trials off Rockland, Maine, yesterday according to a radiogram received by her builders, the Fore River Shipbuilding Corporation at Quincy, Mass. It was stated the vessel developed 20,000 horsepower.

Eleven persons were hurt and the towns of Earlville, Ala., and Agricola, Miss., almost blown to pieces by the tornado sweeping that section Monday, A house near Earlville in which two families had huddled was utterly demolished, but one person injured. Many buildings were literally blown away. Many business buildings and schoolhouses were wrecked.

Mine and torpedoes have taken toll of ten steamers within the last 24 hours, according to reports received in London from various sources. Three of these ships were Italian, two were Greek and the other five belonged, respectively to England, France, Sweden, Denmark and Norway.

The authorities of Charleston, W. Va., investigated yesterday the murder of John Redden, a merchant whose body was found in his home at Warden, Raleigh county. The body had been mutilated with a hatchet and was found in a bed which had been set afire in an effort to hide the crime. Robbery was believed to have been the motive.

A permanent injunction against the enforcement of the so-called Loeb rule, which would prohibit any teacher in the Chicago public schools from belonging to the Chicago Teacher's Federation as long as it was affiliated with the Chicago Federation of Labor, was issued in the Circuit Court yesterday. Attorneys for the Board of Educatio nserved notice of appeal.

The singing of popular songs will not be permitted at weddings solemnized at Portestant Episcopal churches in the Mississippi diocese, Bishop Theodore D. Bratton declared in his address before the diocesan council at Jackson, Miss., yesterday. The Bishop announced that hereafter at church weddings only such musical selections as were authorized by the prayer book should be used.

Fifty thousand miners of the Pittsburg district are on strike. Every mine is closed down. The recent wage agreement, signed by officials representing the miners, which included a 5 per cent increase in rents and a 3 per cent increase in powder for the men, is the cause of the strike. Some of the more radical of the miners favor ousting the officials of the union who signed the new wage scale..

The General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church in the United States, yesterday at Orlando, Fla., decided not to grant women full privileges as deaconesses, but showed, in a long statement of the situation, that it was not the desire to restrict the activities of the women in the home and foreign mission fields. On last Saturday the assembly decided that women should not appear in the pulpit.

Premier Asquith in the British House of Commons yesterday moved a vote of credit of $1,500,000,000 with which to carry on the war. This is the eleventh vote of credit asked by the government since the war began, and brings the total up to $11,910,000,000. The credits granted during the current year, together with that asked yesterday aggregate $3,000,000,000. The premier stated that the daily expenditure of the government from April to May 20 was $24,000,000, which was the highest for any consecutive period. The average daily expenditure for army and navy munitions is $15,000,000..

Another preparedness measure was added to the administration program yesterday in the form of a bill introduced in the House by Representative Hay, chairman of the House Military Affair Committee, providing for establishment of a national council of executive information. The formulation of this plan for the bringing under the supervision of one body the national industries and resources of the country which may be drawn upon in time of war was undertaken, according to Mr. Hay, at the express wish of the President.

After eliminating the equal suffrage provision the House yesterday passed the Porto Rican citizenship bill practically without opposition. The suffrage leaders, who had counted upon a record vote on the amendment which provided that there should be no discrimination as to sex in fixing the qualifications for electors of the island, were disappointed. The amendment was stricken from the bill by a teller vote of 80to 59. The measure makes citizens of Porto Rico citizens of the U. S., provides for an elective Senate, for the creation of a public service commission. It also vests the power of absolute veto in the hands of the President of the United States instead of in the governor of the island.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Mr. Rorer James, editor of the Danville Register and candidate for committeeman on the National Democratic organization, makes emphatic denial of the charge that he is opposed to organized labor.

That no crusade against tobacco is implied or intended in the aims and purposes of the National Prohibition League nor is it anticipated that such a crusade will be started by any of the members of the league was the statement which was today made at the State convention of the National league in session in Richmond in the Smithdeal building.

The Democrats of Clarke county, at district mass conventions, have elected delegates to the State Convention, and unanimously adopted resolutions tendering their congratulations to Congressman James Hay upon his legislative career in the present Congress. They also expressed approval of the Army Reorganization bill.

The note which Charles H.. Burgess, the Mount Crawford, Rockingham county, rural mail carrier, wrote Monday before he killed himself was his will. It was probated yesterday in Harrisonburg. Burgess wrote that he was innocent of the charge of poisoning Mayor Layman's horses and that he killed himself to save his family from disgrace.

Twelve foreign ships at the Norfolk and Western piers at Lambert Point, Norfolk, are being held up by the refusal of 600 negro longshoremen to load the cargoes. There has been reports that there would be another clash between the whites and blacks and the negroes became frightened and quit work. It is reported that pawnshops during the last few days have sold many revolvers to negroes.

FAMILY AVOIDS SERIOUS SICKNESS

By Being Constantly Supplied With Thedford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble.

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, which I did and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."

Thedford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

A SYMBOL OF HEALTH

The Pythagorians of Ancient Greece ate simple food, practiced temperance and purity. As a badge they used the five pointed star which they regarded as a symbol of health. A red five pointed star appears on each package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and still fulfils its ancient mission as a symbol of health. If you are troubled with indigestion, biliousness or constipation, get a package of these tablets from your druggist. You will be surprised at the quick relief which they afford. Obtainable everywhere.
